Dean Vogelaar CITIZEN OF THE YEAR AWARD

The following criteria will be used by a confidential panel of judges to select the recipient of the Citizen of the Year Award.

PURPOSE

The award is intended to honor an individual (or in particular instances a married couple) who has made a significant contribution to Glenwood Springs. As a result of the nominee's effort, the community should have received substantial benefits and become a better place to live and work.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

The nominee should be involved in the betterment of the community through active civic participation in a variety of endeavors over a long span of time. His or her involvement may be in any combinations of fields including: health or human services, education, recreation, arts or cultural improvements, economic development, or community based organizations which contribute to the quality of life in our community. As a result of this improvement, the nominee should have specific and noteworthy accomplishments.

COOPERATION AND SUPPORT

The nominee must have demonstrated willingness to assist in business and community projects by participating personally in projects or events that have resulted in substantial betterment of the community.

LEADERSHIP

The nominee must have exhibited leadership in the community projects and have completed them successfully. Evidence of effective leadership in vital community projects and organizations will be considered, as will the length of time served.

Nominations will be accepted from anyone in the community. The deadline for nominations is October 4. The Citizen of the Year Award recipient will be announced at the Chamber's Annual Gala at the Hotel Colorado on Saturday, November 2. Selection of the Citizen of the Year Committee is final. For further information or questions, please call Angie Anderson at 970-945-0784.

No more than three letters of support may be included with the nomination form.
